The Qur'anic Readings in the First Century of Migration

*Mahmoud A. Al- Atrash**

ABSTRACT

The Qur'an came on Seven letters.

The meaning of these letters, more likely, are seven cases to read Al Qur'an. And the Qur'an has been assembled by Abu Baker and Othman, but assembling of Othman was considered the cases of reading which was adopted by the prophet Mohammed (may peace be upon him).

This research explains, the cases of reading which were arising in the first century of the prophet's migration. And the cases reading in the schools that were arising in different Islamic areas. And to the efforts of readers in them, with discussing the suspicions about the reading cases and the readers.

Keywords: Quranic Readings, Seven Letters, First Century of Migration.
